Pathways to Nursing Success Social Determinant EMERGENCY FUND

May 25, 2018
From: Dr. Catherine M. Griswold, Ed.D, MSN, RN, CLNC, CNE Dean of the Catherine McAuley School of Nursing

As you may already be aware, Trocaire’s Vision is to ensure students are graduates of choice, in career oriented professions. It is also our goal to produce a diverse range of professionals in an effort to close the gap of disparity between patient and professional demographics within health care related fields.

Recently; Trocaire College has become the proud recipient of the Nursing Workforce Diversity grant from HRSA (The Health Resources and Services Administration). The mission of HRSA is to utilize Federal Grant funds to improve health care for people who are geographically isolated, and/or economically or medically vulnerable. As a future nursing professional, it is our hope that you will use your education to help those in need.

The establishment of the Pathways to Nursing Success Social Determinant Emergency fund is meant to further the mission of HRSA’s NWD Grant. At Trocaire we recognize that sometimes life happens. Therefore, as a Catholic Institution founded on the principles of Mercy we want to ensure students know we are here for them, even in their most disparaging hour.

In its first year at Trocaire, the Pathways Program has seen great success! The 25 nursing students currently enrolled in Pathways have seen an increase in academic support, social/emotional support, and financial supports with regard to education and life beyond school. We never imagined how many more students were in need of these same supports! As this program is still new and ever evolving, we have decided to offer emergency support to minority nursing students in need who may or may not officially be accepted into Pathways at this current time. We recognize that the effect of compounding social determinants on your educational pursuits and want to encourage you to keep going!

Completed applications should be emailed to Shawnte Wilson at wilsons@trocaire.edu or a complete application can be dropped off to Room 230. Emergency fund applications will be accepted regularly during the course of a semester. Students receiving emergency support must comply with all additional resource requirements and are limited to 1 award per academic semester for non Pathways students (no more than 2 awards per academic year) and 1 award per academic year to all current Pathways students. Students must fill out a w-9 form if granted emergency fund support.
